Essay Contest

ILCA and IBLCE are celebrating the 25th anniversary of our profession with an essay contest, “How IBCLCs Make A Difference.” Sponsored by the 25th Anniversary Task Force, the contest provides IBCLCs an opportunity to submit a short essay (500 words or less) on how they “make a difference” in their role as an IBCLC.

1. ELIGIBILITY: The contest is open to any IBCLC with current, non-expired IBLCE certification. You do not need to be an ILCA member to participate.
2. HOW TO ENTER: Entrants will submit their essays for the 25th Anniversary Essay Contest via email to Vicki Hobbs at vicki@ilca.org. Include your full name and email address at the top of the essay page. Contest submissions will be accepted electronically through April 15, 2010.
3. WINNER SELECTION: The 25th Anniversary Task Force will select 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners. Notification of awards will be sent to all participants via email after June 15. Winning essays will be posted on the eGlobe and both the ILCA and IBLCE websites. Other entries will be posted on the ILCA 25th Anniversary page. Recognition of the winning essay will take place at the ILCA Conference in San Antonio, Texas.
4. CONTEST AWARDS: Contest winners will receive ILCA Continuing Education modules and USLCA webinars of their choice.
 - First place receives three ILCA modules and three USLCA webinars
 - Second place receives two ILCA modules and two USLCA webinars
 - Third place receives one ILCA module one USLCA webinar

Celebrate your profession’s milestone anniversary by sharing your thoughts on “How IBCLCs Make A Difference!”
