ILCA’s Members

ILCA’s members include IBCLCs, nurses, midwives, physicians, childbirth educators, educators, health advocates, dietitians and nutritionists, speech and occupational therapists, anthropologists, researchers, social workers and more.

Membership Rates

Membership rates are determined by the country ranking according to the World Bank numbers, which are published each July, based on Gross national Product (GNP). These rates will apply to the 2010 membership year.

Membership Levels

There are two levels of membership, Standard and Contributing Professional. Your Contributing Professional membership will be acknowledged in the ILCA eGlobe newsletter.

Membership Time Period

ILCA’s membership year follows the calendar year, January-December. All memberships begin January 1, 2010 and end on December 31, 2010. If you join in October, November or December, your membership will be effective for the 2010 membership year, and your first JHL will be the February 2010 issue.

Please note: If you wish to begin your membership in 2009 and receive back-issues of the 2009 JHL, please contact the ILCA Office at info@ilca.org.
